

Advertise with us at philippinesbest.biz pricing and how to do guide

You might wonder why you just can't upload your advertisement to our pages as you know it from classified ads or other similar services. That's because we do produce unique manually written HTML pages. This is because we want your advertisement to be shown in Google's search results. Plain HTML pages are way more successful in terms of targeting for your keywords as any other website technology like CMS written content. Just so you know why we do it our way and way advertising with us will be successful.

Here is what you can get for free.

If you do have your own website, you can get a back link from our site to yours for free. All we are asking for is, that you place one of these links back to us. The links to us have to be placed within your content, not at your Navigation menu or Blog roll. We will then find the best spot on our advertising network to link back to you. We accept links to us only from sites located in Asia. No Adult or offensive content. We will review your page first b4 we link back.
